Raise a Reader School Challenge

Your School's Status

See how your school is doing in the Raise a Reader program, sponsored by the International Reading Association and Parents magazine. We want to motivate students to read by rewarding their reading milestones. Your students can log their reading minutes as they devour books throughout the spring. The school with the most minutes read per student enrolled at the school will receive $5,000 for their library(click here for official rules). Eligible students also are entered for Barnes and Noble gift cards.

3. Once this is completed, you may be asked to complete this form:

4. Each day that you login, you will now be asked to enter your email and password:
